Conventual Franciscans - Greyfriars

Parish Newsletter: 19th – 25th July 2020

→ Fr Joe Connick is returning home to Canada on 4th August 2020.

Fr Joe has given 14 years of service in Dublin, almost all of it in our Parish. He has also made great contributions in the schools, especially St. Mary's where he was a member of the board of governors. He was also a chaplain to Nazareth house where he said Mass for the members of that community every week.

Fr Joe, apart from being a sophisticated, open minded, and well-educated person, was an exceptional community man and showed an even temper and unfailing kindness to all. We will miss him greatly. Fr Joe's last Mass in Visitation Parish, Fairview, will be on Sunday the 2nd of August at 10:45am.

Due to Covid-19 we will be unable to have a large celebration in the Hall. It is a matter of great regret since after 14 years he certainly deserves a good send off. We wish him well in his retirement in Canada.

→ The normal timetable for Masses and the Sacraments will return from now on.

→ If possible, please go to a Mass where there would normally be less parishioners in order to keep the numbers below 50 for each Mass.

→ Holy Mass for Healing of the Generations in the Family Tree will be held on Sunday 19th July at 6pm

→ As you are aware the Church depends on your donations to keep going. Easter dues can still be paid if you are in a position to do so. You can also go online to pay any donations, including first and second collections www.fairviewparish.ie.

→ We have also added two card machines (porch at front door and Our Lady's Altar) These can be used to make payments by debit card for example.

Parish Activities

Adoration: The Blessed Sacrament Chapel will remain closed. The main Church will be open until 7pm Monday to Friday. Adoration & the Rosary will take place between 6pm – 7pm Monday to Friday in the main Church.

Recently Deceased: Reverend William Pegnam - 6th July – Funeral in Saint Christopher's Catholic Church in San Jose California, U.S.A. Billy Pegnam was born 10th Dec 1932 in Dublin, grew up Shelmartin Avenue. Known as Billy to his family, he was the youngest of eight children. His parents were Patrick & Kathleen Pegnam. He is predeceased by his sister Agnes and brothers, Patrick and Richard as well as his half-sisters, Mona, Jenny, Eileen and Mollie. He is survived by many beloved nieces and nephews. He delighted in the love of a beautiful family. Father Bill told of living through hard times in Ireland in the 1930's and during World War II. After leaving school, he worked in an engineering/iron works company. He wasn't there long when he told his mum he had been calling into the Capuchin Centre on Church St in Dublin to help out and, having been invited to join, was going to signup. He entered the Capuchins in Dublin, and took on the name Brother Anselm. He studied in Kilkenny and Donegal before being ordained a priest May 21, 1967. He was an associate pastor at St. Frances Cabrini, St. Martin of Tours and St. Christopher parishes. He retired from active priestly service in 2009. After having been a priest for 53 years, Fr. William Pegnam was called to the Father's house to celebrate the eternal Liturgy. May God receive this faithful servant and priest into the company of the angels and saints. May he rest in peace.

→ Hand sanitizers are located in the porch at the main door and on the wall beside the missalette holder at the side entrance. 2-meter distancing is advised, and a label has been placed on the pew to indicate social distancing.

→ A new automated door was installed on the side entrance of the Church (disabled access entrance). This automated door will assist those with a disability, it is especially designed for wheelchair access. The wooden door on the inside is still in place, if weather conditions allow please leave this open. If the door is closed and you see a parishioner requiring assistance, please do help and open the door for them.
