Confessions in Knock : Daily 11am – 3pm

Cures and Prayers for Holy Souls in Purgatory : From 1867 the Parish Priest of Knock Parish, Co Mayo - was Archdeacon Cavanagh. He was known to practice special devotion to the Mother of God. Some months before the Apparition, he made known to his parishioners his plan to say one hundred masses for the holy souls in purgatory which our Blessed Mother wished released. Many people think it highly significant that the Apparition occurred within one week of his having said the last of the 100 Masses. Archdeacon Cavanagh undoubtedly played a significant role in the rise of Knock Shrine. In October 1879, he began keeping a diary of all cures reported at Knock and in March 1880 the Weekly News began publishing extracts from his Diary. By October of that year the published list of cures had reached 637. His Diary of Cures is on display at Knock Museum.
