Recently Deceased

Irene Moore (née Dunne)

Last week a donation of € 110 euro was received in special envelope for Trócaire. THANK YOU.

Trócaire rely on these donations to ensure our work in 20 of the world's poorest countries is able to continue. This work helped 2.9 million people last year – supporting them to grow enough food to feed their families; ensuring those in need have access to, control over and the ability to effectively protect and use critical resources, in particular land and water; protecting the rights of people who are marginalised and vulnerable to human rights violations; and working with women and men to eliminate inequalities that keep women poor and marginalised. Trócaire has sent a message of "Thank you" to Fairview Parishioners, helping to support to the work going in communities trying to stay safe during the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic and keep defending their rights to justice, equality and security.

PLEASE WEAR FACE MASKS

Please continue to wear FACE MASKS inside the Church, even if you have received the vaccine. This will help stop the spread of COVID-19. People can still receive / transmit the Covid 19 virus. The vaccine helps to prevent serious illness. Vulnerable people still need to follow the safety guidelines.

The Legion of Mary is celebrating 100 years during 2021 – 2022

Frank Duff was "a man ahead of his time", the Archbishop of Dublin said September 3, as he celebrated Mass to mark 100 years since the Legion of Mary was founded. In Archbishop Dermot Farrell homily in the church of St Nicholas of Myra on Francis Street, across the road from Myra house where the Legion's first meeting took place September 7, 1921, Dr Dermot Farrell described Mr Duff "as prophetic in the true Christian sense of that word".

"A man ahead of this time", Frank Duff was "someone sensitive to the call of God and utterly dedicated to God's will", the archbishop told the 50 people attending the Mass, including Mary Murphy, president of the Legion of Mary. "He translated his prophetic perspective of the universal call to holiness into a vibrant lay movement."

Book: MEDITATING ON THE MYSTERIES OF SALVATION. A GUIDE TO PRAYING THE ROSARY WITH JOY AND DEDICATION BY FRANK DRESCHER

This book is a practical and spiritual guidebook to the Holy Rosary, which not only examines the meaning of its mysteries, but also creates awareness that the Rosary is a prayer deeply rooted in sacred scripture. The way of praying the Rosary presented in this book is rich in variety and offers, in a special way, what the famous theologian Romano Guardini called a 'participation in the life of Mary, whose focus was Christ'.
