Parish Newsletter 6th to 12th of February

‘Building Hope’, project of the Archdiocese of Dublin

‘For now, what we need is the chance to change, to make space for the new thing we need’

Pope Francis, Let Us Dream

Quotations from the report.

‘As we emerge from the Covid-19 crisis, there is a deep and widespread desire to re-establish our sense of belonging to a community of faith, but there is no future in going back unthinkingly to a pre-Covid practice. The model of church as we have known it is not the model that will best serve us in the future’

‘This pastoral strategy is a starting point, but one which clearly acknowledges the need to: hear the call to conversion of hearts and minds; deepen the spirit of prayer and attentiveness to the Word of God; re-imagine diocesan and parish structures; enthuse the community of faith; reach out to those who have stopped attending church, have been hurt or disaffected by the past actions of members of our Church, and to people living on the margins of society’.

Pilgrim God, we give you thanks and praise.

You constantly journey with us even in our darkness and doubts.

We seek your way of loving kindness to walk together as one family.

Open our eyes to recognize you in the faces of one another, in the breaking of bread and in the splendor of creation.

May the risen Christ sow seeds of hope and new life deep within us.

May our hearts and minds be filled with your Word, bringing forth truth, justice and peace.

May the Holy Spirit working in and through us do much more than we can dare to imagine as we live out our baptismal calling in humble and loving service.

We make this our prayer through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

St Laurence O’Toole, pray for us. St Kevin, pray for us. St Brigid, pray for us

The annual Collection for ACCORD Dublin, the Diocesan Agency for Marriage and the Family, will be made at all Masses on the weekend of 12 & 13 February 2022.

In primary Accord has continued to help students acquire an understanding of human relationships and sexuality.

Every couple preparing for marriage who requested a marriage preparation course, received one. Facilitators transitioned to online courses in order that couples might have the opportunity to reflect on their relationship and their future life together.

Accord's counselling service is there to help couples explore any difficulties they may be experiencing in their relationships and family life.

Diocesan Synodal Pathways : The Synodal Pathway will be a good project for Lent – with renewal and reflection in our Church.

During Lent we can gather together for this Synod in our Parish.
