Trócaire's Lenten appeal

Trócaire Lenten Appeal this year features South Province in Zimbabwe. Thandekile's family lives there. They are a farming family. Zimbabwe has had three devastating droughts, a cyclone and floods brought on by climate change destroyed harvest after harvest. Then Covid19 came. Thandekile husband Donovan (aged 35) died of the virus. Trócaire is on the group working with partnerships to enable families like Thandekile's, to be self-sufficient, start a business to give their families a better life, your generous donation this lent will enable Trócaire to continue assisting families like Thandekile's. That is what your Trócaire box is about this year. Boxes are available at the Church entrances. Trócaire is also working with Caritas Poland and Caritas Ukraine to aid refugees fleeing the war.

St. Vincent de Paul (SVP) are starting a clothing appeal. If you have "Decent Clothing in good condition" please place the clothing in a bag and leave the bag in the Church Porch.

SVP visit thousands of homes each year throughout Ireland, providing families & individuals with essential support with food, energy and education costs. The families and individuals SVP visit are not just those on social welfare; they include people in low-paid employment, the self-employed and people in good employment with debts that they just cannot handle
