FEAST OF DIVINE MERCY

Eucharistic Ministers

On Sunday 1st May we will have an induction service for any Eucharistic minister who wishes to attend. After the one 1:15pm Mass.

Feast of Divine Mercy: Pope John Paul II at the canonization of Sr. Faustina on 30 April 2000 in a decree : "throughout the world the Second Sunday of Easter will receive the name Divine Mercy Sunday, a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind will experience in the years to come."

Whoever approaches the Fountain of Life on this day will be granted complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. (Diary, 300)

I want the image solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it. (Diary, 341)

This Feast emerged from the very depths of My mercy, and it is confirmed in the vast depths of my tender mercies. (Diary, 420)

The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.

+ Mary Connick Dunbar
(Sister of Fr. Joe Connick)

Archbishop Eamon Martin of Armagh and Archbishop Dermot Farrell of Dublin, as President and Vice-President of the Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference, have published the following statement to thank the parishes across Ireland for their extraordinary generosity in raising to date of over €3.25 million in response to the crisis in Ukraine. Following the invasion of Ukraine by Russia on 24 February, the Bishops of Ireland asked for a special collection in parishes across the island. This mainly took place over the weekend of 26 and 27 March, as an additional way of helping to address the humanitarian crisis in Ukraine.

The Archbishops said, "Since the outbreak of this war, over 7 million people have been displaced and nearly 5 million people have been forced to emigrate from Ukraine, becoming international refugees. As Christians, our Gospel imperative is to support the victims of this appalling humanitarian crisis, in the words of the Holy Thursday Liturgy, 'where charity and love are found there is God'.

"The large funds raised by Irish parishes will be channelled to assist those who are suffering such devastation to their lives and livelihoods. Parishes across Ireland have responded with enormous generosity and compassion and we are most grateful for that. It is also heartening that some parish communities have established direct links with Ukrainian parishes and local charitable projects to support refugees and those remaining in Ukraine. The proceeds of this special parish collection are already being sent to the international Catholic Church agency, Caritas Internationalis, which is currently operating on the ground in Ukraine and its surrounding areas.

The Archbishops concluded, "Following the sad news this week that seven people, including two Caritas staff, were killed when a Caritas office in Mariupol was shelled, we wish to acknowledge the bravery of humanitarian workers who risk their lives in providing much needed assistance and protection to innocent people who have been caught up in this war. We extend our prayers and deepest sympathy to their families, friends and fellow humanitarian workers."

St. Vincent de Paul (SVP) are starting a clothing appeal. If you have "Decent Clothing in good condition" please place the clothing in a bag and leave the bag in the Church Porch.

Parish Synod

Following the Parish Synod. The two animators for the Parish Synod gatherings have submitted the report form to the Dublin Diocese Synod Committee on the feedback to the four questions from Pope Francis. The Parish Synod report will be available to the Parishioners to read during May 2022.
