The Feast Day of The Venerable Mary Aikenhead – 22 July 2022

Religious Sisters of Charity : The Religious Sisters of Charity are a congregation of religious women, founded by Mary Aikenhead in 1815, in Dublin. Mary Aikenhead was a woman of great faith, a visionary whose dream was to give to people who were poor, what people who had money could buy. Today, we continue to follow her dream in Ireland, England, Scotland, Nigeria, Zambia, Malawi, California and Australia. Today, our Sisters nurse the sick, comfort the dying, visit prisoners, teach children and adults, are involved with asylum seekers, refugees, immigrants, homeless people, young people and older people. We also work with people living with physical and intellectual disability, work in clubs, social centres, and outreach programmes. We are involved in the ministry of prayer, spirituality, retreats, counselling, spiritual direction, chaplaincy and care of the earth.

Trusting in God's love on the synodal pathway

It is easy to see why we should be working more as one and exploring possibilities for our Church. It is easy to see that too many are walking away. It is easy to see that vocations are in decline, that clergy and religious are aging and that parishes will have to find prayerful and effective ways to function in the absence of a resident priest. It is easy to conclude we need to do something meaningful and life-giving to preserve what is so sacred. It is easy to see, to hear and to believe these truths. Why then is it so difficult to explore change? Let us do all in our power, in our hearts and in our shared love of Church to make this a journey of hope and a moment of trust in God's love and guiding hand as we take to the road together. (Irish Catholic)

World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly

Pope Francis has established a World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly, which will take place for the second time on Sunday 24 July 2022 on the theme 'In old age they will still bear fruit (Ps 92:15)'. The World Day was established to be celebrated on the Sunday closest to the Feast Day of Saints Joachim and Anne on 26 July.

Our grandparents held us in their arms and carried us on their knees; now is the time for us to carry on our own knees – with practical assistance or with prayer alone – not only our own grandchildren but also the many frightened grandchildren whom we have not yet met and who may be fleeing from war or suffering its effects.

"My favourite line from the Pope's message is when he invites us to be poets of prayer:

'Let us too become, as it were, poets of prayer: let us develop a taste for finding our own words, let us once again take up those taught by the word of God. Our trustful prayer can do a great deal: it can accompany the cry of pain of those who suffer, and it can help change hearts. We can be "the enduring 'chorus' of a great spiritual sanctuary, where prayers of supplication and songs of praise sustain the community that toils and struggles in the field of life.'

"What a wonderfully uplifting challenge to all of us to become poets of prayer!
