How Your Kindness is Warming Homes and Hearts

Because of your compassion and kindness with donations, SVP-network of caring volunteers across every county, help will arrive to those who contact SVP. Parents know that if they can at least educate their kids they will have a better future. And you know as well as we do, that education is the best way to end poverty passing from generation to generation. This year, SVP call center's around the country have received a dramatic increase in calls from parents who need help with back-to-school. In August alone, a record number of over 5,000 families contacted SVP. With reduced Government funding, schools have been forced to introduce new fees and increase their so-called "voluntary contributions". Families on low incomes just can't cope. Please consider a donation gift today and help ensure children receive the back-to-school support they need. Blue SVP envelopes can be found in the Church. Thank you.

Birthday of the Blessed Virgin Mary, 8th September, 2022, Homily at the Grotto of Massabielle, Lourdes, Fr Gareth Byrne, Vicar General and Moderator of the Dublin Diocesan Curia

We call Mary 'the cause of our joy' because she 'who was to give birth gave birth' to the greatest joy in all our lives, Jesus Christ, her son, the Son of God, Emmanuel, 'God-is-with-us'. This ordinary and extraordinary woman... who gave birth in a strange place away from home, who became a refugee in Egypt, who lost her son for a moment in Jerusalem... this ordinary and extraordinary woman, full of grace, full of joy, was able to say 'Yes' to God, because that is who she was. The Angel Gabriel addressed her with the well-known greeting, 'Hail Mary, full of grace'. Thomas Casey in his lovely reflection on Mary (Smile of Joy: Mary of Nazareth, 2018), describes Mary as, 'the one who was always full of grace.'

† St Francis Prayer Group are meeting each Tuesday at 8pm in Our Lady's Hall. Everyone is welcome to attend. Fr. Marius is guiding the group. Praise and worship music by two local parishioners – Bible study – Prayers – Testimonies have been shared, the story of their encounter with God and what role He has played throughout their life. – Tea and biscuits)

Archbishop's message to the funeral of Lisa, Chelsea and Christy

It is difficult to find words to express our shock at the tragedy that has befallen the Cash and Cawley families in recent days. The words of the prophet Jeremiah, who himself knew much loss, might help us now.

He prayed:

Why is my pain unceasing,
my wound incurable,
refusing to be healed? (Jer 15:18)

I want to assure all who are touched by this tragedy of my sympathy and prayer, and that of the people of the Diocese. May you be consoled in these pain-filled days and may those around you be a source of shelter and strength in the weeks and months to come. May the Lord grant Lisa, Christy and Chelsea eternal rest.

+Dermot Farrell
Archbishop of Dublin

The Men for Christ Conference 2022 - a Catholic Conference for Men will be LIVE & EXCLUSIVE on Radio Maria Ireland Saturday 17th September from 2pm. Speakers for this years Conference are Fr. Jamie Twohig SAC, John Pridmore, David Quinn and Fr. Marius O'Reilly.

The new Deanery framework: A renewed vision of the Deanery affirms that it exists in service of the communion and mission of the parishes that make it up and of the particular groupings or partnerships of parishes to which each parish belongs. The document setting out a framework of principles underpinning the supportive role of the Deanery can be found here :
