Parish Newsletter 9th – 15th October 2022

Precautions against Covid. The Archdiocese strongly advises parishioners to wear a mask during services and to receive communion in the hand.

Blessing of animals. The feast of St. Francis of Assisi is on 4th October next. The annual blessing of animals will take place on Sunday 9th October after the 1:15pm Mass. All are invited to bring along their pets for this special Blessing in the Church grounds.

There is a poem by TS Elliott that has always expressed for me the essence of community, and Christianity from God's perspective.

You know not what they mean to me my friends
In a life composed so much, so much of odds and ends.
And how, how rare and strange it is,
to find one who has - and gives
Those qualities upon which friendship lives.
You know not what they mean to me my friends

May you always have good friends and count Jesus among them. God Bless, Fr Max McKeown OFM Conv.
