"Lord, I love you!"

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI's last words a few hours before he died. These are words that are like a synthesis of the life of Joseph Ratzinger, who for years now had been preparing for his final, face-to-face encounter with his creator.

Upgrade of the Church Lighting has begun :

The upgrade of the lighting system in our Church was scheduled with the contractor for this month and thankfully, they began last Thursday. We apologize for the equipment needed that may be blocking of different walk ways / aisles in the Church, especially by a Mobile Elevated Work Platform, this work is estimated to take two weeks to be completed.

It makes sense financially and in a practical way to change to low power LED lighting. This upgrade will improve energy and maintenance efficiencies.

THANK YOU ALL, for your continued support and donations, to allow the Church to be maintained and updated. Your envelope donations, along with car park income and Church savings is allowing the Church Lighting project to be completed in response to the energy crisis and future use of the Church.

DONATIONS ARE WELCOME

Please place donation in an envelope and write your NAME & ADDRESS and "Church Lighting" on envelope

Remembering Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI. On 28 June 2016, on the 65th anniversary of the priestly ordination of his then emeritus predecessor, Pope Francis wanted to emphasise the "underlying characteristic" that marked the long history of Joseph Ratzinger's priesthood. Pope Francis said: "In one of the many beautiful passages you have written on the priesthood, you emphasize that, at the hour of Simon's definitive call, Jesus, fixing his gaze on him, essentially asks only one thing: 'Do you love me?'. How beautiful and true this is! Because it is here, as you go on to tell us, in that 'Do you love me?', that the Lord establishes the true meaning of shepherding, because only through love for the Lord will the Lord be able to shepherd through us: 'Lord, you know everything, you know that I love you'". By Andrea Tornielli on www.vaticannews.va
Pope Francis remembered Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI in his homily on New Years day. "We are moved as we recall him as such a noble person, so kind. And we feel such gratitude in our hearts: gratitude to God for having given him to the Church and to the world; gratitude to him for all the good he accomplished, and above all, for his witness of faith and prayer, especially in these last years of his recollected life. Only God knows the value and the power of his intercession, of the sacrifices he offered for the good of the Church."
