Parish Newsletter 10th – 16th September 2023

Gospel Reflection Matthew 18:15-20: What's the best way to repair a damaged relationship? Jesus offers his disciples spiritual freedom and power for restoring broken or injured relationships. Don't brood over an offense – speak directly and privately. If we truly want to settle a difference with someone, we need to do it face to face. If this fails in its purpose, then the second step is to bring another person or persons, someone who is wise and gracious rather than someone who is hot-tempered or judgmental. The goal is not so much to put the offender on trial, but to persuade the offender to see the wrong and to be reconciled. And if this fails, then we must still not give up, but seek the help of the Christian community. Pray for the offender – for healing and reconciliation.

Classes will begin soon in Marino Parish for any Catholic child in the cluster of Marino/Fairview/Donnycarney who attends a non-Catholic school and whose parents wish them to receive the Sacraments of First Reconciliation (Confession), First Communion or Confirmation. Contact Anne Dooley at Marino Parish Office on 8332772 for further information.

St Faustina: Tell souls not to place within their own hearts obstacles to My mercy, which so greatly wants to act within them. My mercy works in all those hearts which open their doors to it. Both the sinner and the righteous person have need of My mercy. Conversion, as well as perseverance, is a grace of My mercy (Diary, 1577).

Coffee / Tea Morning will take place in Our Lady's Hall on Tuesday's and possibly one more day after the 8am Mass and Rosary in the Church.

The Pathways programme, run by the Archdiocese of Dublin, begins this year in DCU St Patrick's Campus, Upper Drumcondra Road, Dublin 9, on Thursday, September 28 (7pm – 9.30pm). There are just a few places left in this year's Pathways programme and applications are closing shortly.

Pathways is a two-year, one-evening-a-week course for adults of all ages who wish to explore their faith. It runs from late September to May each year. There are no exams and no written work. The only requirement is an openness to listening to others and to participate. You can just come along and enjoy! The cost is €400 for the coming year, which may be paid in instalments. Some sponsorship may be available for those of limited means. Visit www.missionministry.ie or contact Eileen Houlahan, CHF, PhD at 01 8087594 or pathways@dublindiocese.ie

Adult Education Certificate in Spirituality and Human Development is a two-year part-time evening programme run by Marino Institute of Education. The programme takes place on Tuesday evenings from 7.00–9.30pm with a 30 minute tea/coffee break, and there are three or four Saturday Workshops 10.00am–4.00pm. https://www.mie.ie/en/study_with_us/undergraduate_programmes/certificate_in_spirituality_human_development/

Healing of the Family Tree Mass next Sunday 17th September at 6pm

In Lamentations 5:7 it states: "Our forefathers have sinned and are now dead, and we bear their punishment." The Healing of the Family Tree is directed to lifting this punishment or bondage of body, mind or spirit; and this is done by applying The Healing Power of the Eucharist. The core of the Healing Service is the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass celebrated for the intention of healing these bondages that are trans generational in one's family tree.

Nursing Home visits for parishioners can be arranged only with the express permission of the next of kin of the resident. Please notify Fr. Kevin so that a visitation can be arranged.

Communion: Communion visits by the Friars to the housebound occurs every month, please contact Fr. Kevin.
