Parish Newsletter 17th – 23rd August 2025

Gospel Reflection Luke 12:49-53: Jesus tells His disciples that He came to bring fire and division, not peace. Families will be divided because of Him, with conflicts even among close relatives.

Ordination Mass

Friar Peter George Flynn, who has been serving in the parish as a deacon for the past month, will be ordained a priest through the imposition of hands and the invocation of the Holy Spirit by His Grace, the Auxiliary Bishop of Dublin, Paul Dempsey, in our parish Church here in Fairview on Saturday the 30th of August at 10.30am. The Ordination Mass will be followed by a reception in Our Lady's Hall. All are invited.

Fr. Peter's First Mass in Fairview will be the following day, Sunday the 31st of August, at 11.30am. There will be a reception in Our Lady's Hall afterwards. Pope Leo XIV has graciously promised a plenary indulgence (full remission of temporal punishment for sins already forgiven) to all those who attend Fr. Peter's First Mass, on condition that they go to confession in the eight days before or after the Mass, receive Communion on the day and pray for the Pope's intentions, and having complete detachment from all sin, even venial.

"Plead with God to grant peace to all peoples who are experiencing the tragedy of war."

Pope Leo's appeal on 13th August, was inspired by Saint Maximilian Maria Kolbe, who died in the Auschwitz concentration camp after volunteering to take the place of a father of a family condemned to die by starvation.

Fr. Aidan will be celebrating his birthday on the 17th August, all parishioners are invited for tea and cake in Our Lady's Hall after the 11:30am Mass.

We will continue to host devotions to the Holy Face of Jesus on Tuesday evenings in the Church from 7pm to 7:30pm with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

Vocation, a calling from God which invites the person to serve him in some special way. For example, religious ministry, monastic life, missionary work, marriage etc. Ultimately, a vocation by God is a deeply personal and spiritual belief that one's life and work are guided and influenced by a divine purpose or calling. Email the vocations team : vocation@thegreyfriars.org www.thegreyfriars.org/vocations

DAY OF PRAYER AND REFLECTION FOR GAZA – AUGUST 24 : As Pope Leo said, addressing the young people gathered for the Jubilee of Youth in Rome, and encouraging them in their desire to transform our world for the good: 'We are with the young people of Gaza, we are with the young people of Ukraine, with those of every land bloodied by war. My young brothers and sisters, you are the sign that a different world is possible: a world of fraternity and friendship, where conflicts are not resolved with weapons but with dialogue.' (Pope Leo XIV, Angelus, 3rd August 2025). May we all be a sign, by our prayer and action, that a different world is possible, and that a route to peace and reconciliation can and must be found through dialogue. +Dermot Farrell, Archbishop of Dublin

TALK ON ST LAURENCE O'TOOLE : Monday, September 1st, at 8pm in the Knights of Columbanus, 8 Ely Place, Dublin 2. The talk will be given by Fr John Scroope O'Brien, PP. Clontarf, who is a distant relative of St Laurence. All are welcome.

Unprovoked attacks on members of the Indian community in Dublin, a copy of the Statement of Archbishop Dermot Farrell is available in the Church.

"Our parishes and school communities have already given a warm welcome to Indian families who have made their homes here I urge them to strengthen that spirit of solidarity, not only with Indian members of parish communities, but with all our Indian neighbours. I call on everyone to support the Gardaí in every way to confront and defeat those whose actions have contributed to the fear now being experienced in the Indian community in Dublin."

St. Francis Prayer Group will be taking a short break for the month of August. We will resume again in September. Thank you to everyone for all the support during the year. God bless you.
