We received 577.00 euros through your generosity in buying our Christmas gifts. This is a great support for our formation program here in Raheny. Likewise, we would like to use this opportunity to thank you for your constant prayers throughout the past 15 months for our novices. We know that a group of parishioners faithfully prayed the rosary each evening for them. May God hear your fervent prayers and bless your parish with new vocations for the church here in Ireland as well as for God's mission in the whole world.

God bless you all abundantly in this season of Advent. We wish you a joyful Christmas and a peace-filled happy New Year.
